Our conversation with Tim . . .

ACMP PNW: Tell us about your background - your education and where you grew up.

TIM: I grew up in East Lansing Michigan. My father was a professor at Michigan State University and I graduated from MSU. I moved to Chicago and lived over a decade in Chicago. I completed a post graduate program at The University of Chicago in Project Management Strategy. About seven years ago, I relocated to the Pacific Northwest.

ACMP PNW: How long have you been working in Change Management (CM)? How did you choose this career?

TIM: I've been involved in CM for about 10 years. As a member of our executive board, I was tasked with initiating our approach to CM for the firm and spreading the CM culture within our firm. In preparation for this assignment, I completed the Prosci Certified Change Practitioner and Train the Trainer programs. I'm also a CCMP and a Founding Member of ACMP.

ACMP PNW: What's the biggest reward you get from your CM career?

TIM: As a firm specializing in project management, it has been wonderful to see the improvement in project delivery which can be obtained through the consistent application of organizational change management.

ACMP PNW: What's one Fun Fact about you?

TIM: I am a descendant of puritan founding fathers Dr. Cotton Mather and Dr. Increase Mather. I'm also a Member of the Sons of the American Revolution having a direct patrilineal connection to Timothy Mather who fought in the revolutionary war.
